1. AFRA sources in Peru reported that Aprista Humberto Campos, who was recently released by the Peruvians and turned over to the Brazilians as a result of diplomatic representations by Rio de Janeiro to Lima, was brutally tortured while he was in the hands of the Odria police. He was forced, according to source, to fabricate a plot which the Peruvian government hoped to use to bolster its position at the Hague International Court which has been considering the political asylum case of Victor Raul Haya de la Torre.
2. Leaders of the underground Aprista party have been well informed on developments of the case and have learned that he will soon make a public declaration in Rio de Janeiro claiming that he was coerced into signing statements and making recordings giving details of an Aprista plot which never existed.

25X1A

Nothing has been made public in the Lima press regarding Brazil's protest over the violation of Brazilian territory by Peruvian police agents who kidnaped Campos in March 1950 from Tabatinga. Campos was later named by the Peruvian government as the source of information that the Apristas were engaged in plotting with certain Colombian elements to cause a border incident at Leticia between Peru and Colombia. The pro-Odria press has carried brief veiled references to the existence of an AFRA plot to create a Peru-Colombian border incident.
